Lighten Up

"Sage green is a great way to bring a crisp, light feel to sporty and military-inspired pieces during summer. You can give the shade a sharp, urban quality by pairing it with black"
- Jason Basmajian, CCO, Cerrutti 1881

Shade of Substance

"It's one of those rare hues that is neither too bold nor too bland. This makes it a great option for expanding your spectrum if you're wary of bright colours but bored of grey"

Military Mix

"Sage is more versatile than you think. It's easy to combine with other shades, but it also stands well on its own. It looks particularly strong with vintage military apparel"

04 Palette Booster

"Sage green is the perfect neutral shade. It lifts the palette without being too loud. If going head to toe feels like overkill, introduce it with accessories, such as a hat or bag"
